

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Criminal No. 18-cr-10270-RWZ

ALLAH MALLORY,

Defendant.

REPORT IN LIEU OF FINAL STATUS CONFERENCE
PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 116.5(c)

Cabell, U.S.M.J.

On January 24, 2019, the parties requested that the case be reported to the District Judge for a pretrial conference, which the court has set for February 6, 2019. As no further status conferences are necessary before me, I report as follows:

Local Rule 116.5(c)(1) – Whether the Defendant Requests a Rule 11 Hearing

The defendant has not requested a Rule 11 hearing.

Local Rules 116.5(c)(2)(A) – Status of Discovery

Discovery is substantially complete. There are no discovery issues to report; no discovery motions have been filed and none are anticipated.

Local Rule 116.5(c)(2)(C): Whether all Motions under Rule 12(b) Have Been Filed

No Rule 12(b) motions have been filed to date and none are anticipated at this time.

Local Rule 116.5(c)(2)(D) – The Status of Excludable Time

The court has entered orders excluding the time from the defendant's August 23, 2018 initial appearance through February 6, 2019, the date scheduled for the pretrial conference.

Accordingly, 70 non-excludable days will remain under the STA when and if the pretrial conference is held as scheduled.

Local Rule 116.5(c)(2)(E) and (c)(3): Estimate of Trial and Miscellaneous Matters

The parties estimate a trial would last three days. There are no other matters specific to the case that would assist the District Judge upon transfer.
